Traction aids

FOR A RELIABLE GRIP ON ANY SURFACE

With SOUDEL's traction aids, you'll never get stuck in a tough situation on the road. Whether you drive a pick-up or heavy-duty truck, these sturdy and durable traction aids are easy to store, and even easier to deploy when you need to get a grip on snow, ice, sand or mud. They'll help you hit the road with full confidence in any condition.

Never lose traction on the road

SOUDEL has built its traction aids to be robust and dependable. Made of steel with top-notch craftsmanship, these traction aids will last for many years to come. They'll help you to avoid wasting time if you ever get stuck on a slippery surface, and they'll get you back on the road in no time. SOUDEL also offers convenient storage boxes (sold separately) for its large traction aids.
